Community Connection Navigates are skilled human service professionals...who are knowledgeable about charitable organizations, county, and state resources. They can provide quick information for simple questions. They can also work with residents on complex issues. Residents can work with the same Navicate during their interaction with Community Connections allowing the Navicate to serve as both a navigator of the system and as an advocate for the individual throughout the process. This service is FREE of charge to ANY MONTGOMERY COUNTY RESIDENT. Language line services are readily available.
