Protecting the Rights of Older Pennsylvanians

SeniorLAW Center protects the legal rights and interests of seniors in need, providing free legal services, community legal education, professional training, advice, information and referral services, and advocacy.

- Emergency legal advocacy, representation and intervention for elders who have experienced financial exploitation, including protection from and remedies to address complex financial exploitation, identity theft, fraud and other crimes.
- Counseling, support, advice, guidance and information/referral services for elders who have experienced financial exploitation, linking them to other resources and support services, including emergency financial assistance, support groups, health services, lock changes, and other resources.
- Immediate access to a legal representative for elders who have experienced financial abuse and exploitation through a helpline as well as direct in-person services and representation.
- Community education and outreach programs to help elders self-identify, and focus on assisting elders to recognize and understand elder financial abuse.
